HISTORY

Growing up in the South Bronx, Hector Ayala was unemployed, his father worked three jobs to support the family and his brother was a drug addict. While still searching for direction in his own life, Ayala stumbled upon the Tiger Amulets, ancient extradimensional pendants that granted him martial-arts mastery and a white-tiger suit and claws.

Ayala used his new powers for good, despite his secret life leading to many complications. He pressed on, impressing heroes like Spider-Man, Prowler and Jack of Hearts along the way. Ultimately, the Tiger Amulets led to an addiction to his super-hero persona, even after his family was killed by the deranged Gideon Mace. Later in life, he was falsely accused of killing a police officer and was shot down trying to escape custody. Daredevil would clear his name, and the amulets were willed to Ayala's niece, F.B.I. agent Angela Del Toro. She became the White Tiger for a time before the amulets were given to Ava Ayala, who continues to uphold the heroic legacy of the White Tiger.

This profile represents Hector Ayala at the height of his powers.

PERSONALITY

Hector Ayala has strong family ties and fights his war on crime to defend them. But the more he fought, the more he became addicted to the amulets.
